By reading the Bible we can get a small taste of the wonder and the immensity and the brilliant shining glory that is God. O, why should we make this present world our rest, which never can be? Red can be for the heart that beats, blue can be for the cleansing waters of baptism, green can be for the hope that lies within, yellow can be for the sunrise and the sunsets of our life that bring us to each new and exciting day, purple can be for the reconciliations that occur in our life, and white can be for the newness of life that God has in store for each one of His children.
