It falls completely short. All these you are saying is again from the wisdom of the World. Reference Only.

Luke does mention that he did historical research before writing his Gospel.

It was just another thought I had as I was reading my Bible..... If I lost my hope it would destroy me. Further, the authors demonstrated the other three critical areas of establishing reliable eyewitness testimony: they were present, they were accurate in their reportage of significant and even seemingly insignificant details, and there is corroborating evidence for their claims.

A few responses. I would just like to mention. I don't care what people believe in, it's a free world and if you want to be gay or serve Satan or science or whatever it is your choice and I respect. What was the point in Jesus dying in the first place?
