The situation in the peninsula no doubt warrants a sense of pessimism. French armies continued to threaten Wellington throughout the latter months of but at no time were able to catch him at a disadvantage. This website uses cookies to ensure you get the best experience on our website.

The French army that conquered Portugal, however, also occupied parts of northern Spain. And nowhere within the field of war was military honour so tested than in storming the breaches of a town. But let's see. Article Media.

Moreover, as this article has argued, there is another important dimension to the Peninsular War. Soult's cavalry screened to the east and south.
