Republicans are divided on how to confront illegal immigration between a platform that allows for migrant workers and a path to citizenship for undocumented immigrants supported by establishment typesversus a position focused on securing the border and deporting illegal immigrants supported by populists. This is due in part to the perception of chronic federal mismanagement of the fisheriesforced resettlement away from isolated settlements in the s, the government of Quebec still drawing inaccurate political maps whereby they take parts of Labradorand to the perception that mainland Canadians look down upon Newfoundlanders. Retrieved December 17,
