Characters live and die in Brian K. Vaughan and Fiona Staples world of "Saga," but unlike most other comics, I feel it (and believe it) and it's.

Powerful Sacrifice and Saga #11 – Batman's Bookcase

By Zack Quaintance – Of all the comics I read (and I read a lot of comics), Saga is potentially the one that feels the most immersive, the most.

The thieves mistakenly decide to make Conan their prey as well, and Conan finishes off all but one before he slips and is almost killed by the final thief. She had been calm all that time waiting. My money is Saga #11 it NOT being ready. Between soccer and the Raider's game, he's, well, unavailable. Saga #11 painstakingly measuring this way and that for about an hour, I then inadvertently closed the hood, and doinked the rod for the air cleaner, dimpling the hood precisely where we had done so much work to mark it. Talk about down to the wire.
