Hot Winter Nights (Heartbreaker Bay, #6) by Jill Shalvis

Start by marking "Hot Winter Nights (Heartbreaker Bay, #6)" as Want to Read: Hot Winter Nights is the sixth book in Jill Shalvis' Heartbreaker Bay series but in my opinion can be read as a standalone without any spoilers from the previous books. Hot Winter Nights was sexy.

The heroine, Molly, has a disability from a traumatic injury and has to Hot Winter Nights with people thinking she is weak and needs protecting because of it. And, as a special bonus, she adores criminal investigations as much as I do : 2. Notify me of new posts by email.

The wintertour could be a nearly test of the sport's ability to fight off the... With Molly that changes fast. There were a few pretty suspenseful moments and just enough humor to keep things really interesting.

I thought it was a cuter romance with likable lead characters. And a cane, which she kept by her bed and hated more than green vegetables, and she hated green vegetables a lot.
