The weather is getting perfectly delicious. I have asked her, and she said she did. I wish mother wouldn't sigh. Oh, that I could learn to bridle my un lucky tongue! How delightful! The Little Prince. One can't tread this without feeling convicted. At the age of sixteen she began to write for the press : the little volume entitled " Only a Dandelion," consisting chiefly of her early contributions to " The Youth's Companion," of Boston. And my list of such oft tonces is as long as my life!
