One major source of confusion is the word samba, which everyone knows to be the most typical Brazilian dance. Weapon of the clandestine intellectualism of a mixed race woman blocked from taking ownership over her own choices. Three ornamental devices are used: rising attack, where the singer starts below the proper note and rises to it in a short glissando; falling release, where the singer lets the final note fall downwards in a short glissando; and portamento, where the singer slides the voice from note to note without gaps.

A religious conquest A religious conquest comparable to that of apostolic times recommenced on the scale not of a Mediterranean empire but of the inhabited universe. It compels us to recognize that we exist in an ongoing crisis of citizenship, in which we are subjected to the incessant movement of history.
