Without even thinking about it, I have become a jerk with most religions. I will leave you with these last words: either embrace one another in a true spirit of empathy, loving compassion, and tolerance, and unite against the horrible enemy that seeks your annihilation, or perish for want of doing so. The Illusion of Certainty deconstructs this tendency and reveals the many shortcomings Humanus Diabolicus: A Postmodern Prophecy belief systems that have motivated countless injustices and horrors in the name of being 'right.
